Dear Mr. Wares:

Re: Certification, Hybrid Microcircuits MIL-PRF-38534, FSC 5962, VQ (VQH-12-024579)

Your hybrid facility at the above address was sample audited the week of May 21, 2012 for compliance with MIL-PRF-38534 Classes H. An acceptable level of confidence has been established that compliance with these requirements exists. Therefore, Micross Components is granted Class H certification effective July 26, 2012.

This certification is for the following:

- a. Quality Management Plan: Micross Components Orlando – Quality Management Plan MCO-Q-102 revision -
- b. Conversion of Customer Requirements: S-036 revision -
- c. Controlled documentation baseline for processing MIL-PRF-38534 devices: Document Baseline Listing, MCO-Q-102 Appendix 1

This certification is valid until terminated by written notification from the qualifying activity. The normal period of certification is two years from the date of the audit and, if warranted, may be withdrawn by DLA Land and Maritime-VQH at any time. Your facility may be re-audited on a drop-in basis at any time.

All screening, qualification, conformance, and periodic inspection must be performed at a facility which has a DLA Land and Maritime-VQ letter of Laboratory Suitability for the applicable test method and condition.

QML manufacturers shall notify the qualifying activity immediately after learning of a potential issuance of a GIDEP alert, problem advisory or major quality/reliability problem affecting QML products. This includes failure to perform screening or sample testing (including inspection) in accordance with MIL-PRF-38534. Failure to provide notification may be grounds for removal from QML-38534.

This certification is valid until terminated by written notification from the qualifying activity. The normal period of certification is two years from the date of the validation. This certification may be withdrawn by DLA Land and Maritime-VQH at any time if warranted. Your facility may be re-audited on a drop in bases at any time.

If you have any questions concerning this letter, please contact Miss Schneider at (614) 692-0585.

Sincerely,
